

Daily Reflection of Feelings

Use the table below with the client to record how their day went and capture their feelings for later review.

Name / Date
Summarize your day.
List the strongest or most impactful feelings you had.
What was the best part of the day?
What would you change about the day if you could?
What are you looking forward to tomorrow?
What did you learn about yourself today?